

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904.

WATCHES

I have something of interest to watch buyers and would like to have you come in and talk with me. If you don't want to buy now, would like to show you a filled case guaranteed for 100 years.

C. F. HOFFMAN The Jeweler.

The Sweetest Flower That Blows

Is not sweeter than THELMA, the new perfume. A delightful odor, delicate yet permanent.

THELMA is becoming the favorite among people of refinement everywhere.

Call and test it at our store. We are glad to show it because it makes friends for itself and us.

Stoke, the Druggist

A Little of Everything.

No paper next week. The next issue of THE STAR will be July 13th. Carnival company at Reynoldsville all of next week. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Broakey, of Prescottville, June 23, 1904, a son. The Epworth League held a lawn fete on the M. E. parsonage lawn Friday evening. The Woman's Relief Corps held an ice cream social in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening. Peter Taafte has been elected check weighman at the Panther Run Coal Co. mine at Pardus. Commissioners Al. Hawk and Harvey Haugh were in this section last week inspecting county bridges. Prof. Hines will give a grand ball in Reynolds Park to-night, June 29. Jamison orchestra. Gants $1.00. A few Reynoldsville people took in the Royal Arcanum picnic at Mitchell's Park on Thursday of last week. Miss Elsie Ross, of this place, has been elected as one of the teachers in the Lindsay school for next term. The lawyers of Jefferson county are now having their annual vacation of one month, from June 27 to July 25. Mrs. David L. Brumbaugh brought a beautiful bouquet of sweet scented pink pinks to THE STAR office Saturday. The Keystone hand boys are getting dandy new suits, black trimmed in maroon. The nineteen suits will cost $300.00. P. F. Bolger, who has been suffering with rheumatism for sometime, went to Cambridge Springs Monday for treatment. Hope Fire Co. has hired the Keystone band for the Fourth of July. The band boys will have their new uniforms before that time. The ninth annual Bible Conference of the Pennsylvania Young-Men's Christian Association will be held at Eagles Mere, Pa., July 1 to 8. Ordinance No. 94, accepting the bid of T. E. Evans for the grading, curbing and paving of Main street, will be found in this issue of THE STAR.

John Trudgen, jury commissioner of Jefferson county, is at Brookville to-day drawing the list of jurors for August term of court. Reynolds Gibson and Frank Bohron, of Reynoldsville, played with the Puntstunway ball team at Brookville last Thursday afternoon. The Sons of Veterans are making arrangements to hold the field encampment in the Tom Reynolds orchard near the Mansion Inn in August. J. B. Nichols, of Jackson street, bought three rose combed minora chickens, rooster and two hens, last week. They are high priced chickens. A freight wreck occurred on the P. R. R., near Iowa, Thursday. Six cars were wrecked and passengers on evening trains had to be transferred. Town council has granted merchants permission to sell fire works on July 4th and 5th. Only small fire crackers can be sold or shot within the borough limits. The editor of THE STAR left here this morning for Eagles Mere, Pa., to attend the annual summer outing of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association. The Winslow township school board recently re-organized with A. C. Murray as president of the board, W. H. Reber treasurer and George E. Null secretary. James Lusk, foreman of the Seneca Coal Company, at Chambersville, while overseeing some work done at the air shaft, fell forty feet from a scaffold, but was not seriously hurt. Wednesday evening of last week a number of the members of the Knights of Pythias Lodge of DuBois visited the Knights of Pythias Lodge at this place. Lunch was served after lodge adjourned. The Jefferson County Medical Society was to have held a meeting at the National Hotel in Reynoldsville last Friday afternoon, but there were not enough members present for a quorum. Twenty-three lady members of the Brookville Euchar Club came to Reynoldsville Friday forenoon and went from here to Puntstunway on a special trolley car, returning in the evening. Hope Hose Company and Volunteer Hose Co. No. 2 of this borough and the Citizens Fire Co. of West Reynoldsville will have a hub race on Main street Thursday evening of next week, July 7th. At the meeting of the Winslow township school board last Saturday the Progressive Reader and Smith Arithmetic were adopted for the township schools for coming term. The board will elect teachers the last Saturday of July. John E. Ford, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Lottie Cramer, of Oak Ridge, were married at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ford, on Grant street at 9 o'clock p. m. Thursday, June 23rd, 1904. "Squire E. Neff tied the nuptial knot. Miss Verda Dougherty, a graduate of the Reynoldsville high school, who took a course in a business college at New Castle, accepted a position in that city on Monday morning of this week as bookkeeper and cashier in a large department store. There were fifteen applicants for the position. C. A. Barlett, of West Reynoldsville, foreman of the Low Grade Division bridge crew, shipped his camping cars and tools to Franklin Saturday and on Monday Mr. Bartlett and crew went to Franklin where they will erect three spans of an overhead bridge to connect with the county bridge over the Allegheny river. The Reynoldsville Water Co. will lay a six inch water line from Second street, this borough, along Main street, across the Sandy Lick creek into West Reynoldsville and up Pike street to Brown street, and a four inch line from Brown street some distance on up Pike street. A fire plug will be put in above Brown street. About 2:00 a. m. Monday a crowd from DuBois fractured an ordinance and shattered the stillness of that hour of the night by shooting revolvers and otherwise making a disturbance as they drove up Main street. Some of the participants will likely knock before the end of this week that such conduct is a little expensive sometimes. When Hubert R. Farrell, of Elkins, W. Va., returned to that place last week accompanied by his sister, Miss Ueta Farrell, some person along the line sent word ahead that he was returning with a lady and his friends concluded he had been married. Hasty preparations were made for a serenade at the railroad station when Hubert arrived and he got the serenade. P. R. R. train No. 113, due here at 11:42 a. m., killed Charles Reinsel, a twelve-year-old boy, at Fairmount Monday. E. A. Reinsel, of Hawthorne, father of the boy, runs a milk wagon and Charles was driving the wagon alone when the train struck it, Mr. Reinsel having taken several bottles of milk and was delivering it to nearby houses. The milk wagon was knocked to pieces but the horses were clear of the track and were not injured.

No Paper Next Week. THE STAR will not be published next week, July 6, but the office will be open every day, except July 4th, for job work, receiving names of new subscribers or writing receipts for subscriptions now due. An Old Clock. Wesley Motter got possession of a clock recently that his father bought 77 years ago, which he prizes very highly. The clock has been ticking all these years and keeps correct time yet. It has brass wheels and is good for many more years. Miss Dougherty Resigned. Miss Nellie Dougherty, who has been a teacher in the public schools of this borough five years, and was re-elected this month for next term, has resigned to accept a position in the public schools of New Castle at a salary of $55.00 per month for a term of nine months, with the promise of a raise of $2.00 per month next year. Miss Dougherty is a good teacher. Begun Paving To-Morrow. Thomas E. Evans, who has the contract to pave Main street, said yesterday morning that he would begin the work to-morrow, Thursday, morning. The work will be started at the iron bridge to-morrow and next Tuesday morning a crew of men will be put to work tearing up the wooden paving on east side of Fourth street and will work up to Seventh street, while the other crew of men will work from iron bridge to Fourth street. Hotel Dynamited. About eleven o'clock Monday night of this week an attempt was made to blow up the Hughes Hotel at Rathmel with dynamite. The dynamite was put under one of the rear corners of the building, in the part of the house where the bartender sleeps. Fortunately the dynamite did not get the explosive far enough under the building to do any serious damage, although the corner of the building was considerably shattered. There is no clue to the perpetrators. Organized for Sport. The Eagle Hunting and Fishing Club is the name of a new club organized at Reynoldsville with seven members, John Regis as president of the club, Joseph Welsh as commissary and Norman Butler treasurer, Enoch Snyder, Charles McAninny, William McMillen and Nicholas Welsh. All members of the club, except Nicholas Welsh, will go to Round Island, on Stonemahoning, to campout for several weeks. Nicholas Welsh will join the party later. Volunteer Hose Co. No. 2 Re-organized. A meeting to re-organize Hose Co. No. 2 of the east end was held in the Company Hose rooms Thursday, June 23rd. S. M. Clark was appointed chairman of the meeting. The following officers and committee were elected and appointed: Foreman, H. R. Burns; assistant foreman, Curtis McIntyre; secretary, Geo. S. Keagle; treasurer, D. M. Hamilton; nozzle and plug men were elected, also following committee on apparatus: H. R. Burns, Geo. S. Keagle, F. C. Lewis, Frank Gunns and S. M. Clark, chairman. Death From Heart Trouble. Mrs. Deborah Parrell, of Baltimore, Md., mother of Mrs. A. Katzen, of Reynoldsville, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Rosenfelt, of Sycamoreville, at 4:00 a. m. yesterday, June 28, 1904, from heart disease. Mrs. Parrell was 74 years old. She had been visiting her daughter about four weeks. The body was brought to Reynoldsville and shipped from here to Baltimore on the 6:15 p. m. train for interment. Mrs. A. Katzen, Mrs. Rosenfelt and Wm. Siff, of Desire, a son-in-law of deceased accompanied the body to Baltimore. Took Lodge Degree. Friday evening nine members of Valiant Lodge No. 461, Knights of Pythias, of Reynoldsville, took four candidates to DuBois to have the degree team of DuBois give them the Third Rank in K. of P. The members were: William Copping, Philip Kohler, Lewis D. Kleinhans, Clinton S. Hartman, Alex. Frantz, Samuel R. Williams, George W. Harding, Josh F. Hindertler and David Motherwell. The four candidates were: Charles M. Dinger, Harry E. Burns, William Morton and William H. Pomroy. Lunch was served at 1:00 a. m. Saturday and the Pythians arrived home about the time the signs of morning light appeared on the eastern horizon. Message in Bottle. Four or five weeks ago Earl Barclay and Fred Mohny, two lads of this place, found a bottle along the banks of the Sandy Lick creek, in which they put a slip of paper with their names, address and request for the finder of the bottle to write to either one of them, corked the bottle and throw it into the creek. About two weeks afterward Earl Barclay received a letter from a young lady who had found the bottle in Red Bank creek at Climax, ten miles below New Bethlehem. Earl answered the letter and a little romance may result from the bottle message. If it proves that the girl is too old for Earl, he has a couple of older brothers that might possibly take up the case.

TROLLEY CARS TO SOLDIER. Cars Will be Running Saturday—Power House Completed in One Month. D. H. Clark, general manager of the Jefferson Traction Co., said yesterday morning that he expects to have the trolley line completed as far as Soldier in two runs cars between Reynoldsville and Soldier on Saturday of this week. Small cars will be run on the new line until the new power house above Prescottville is ready for operation, which will be not later than the first of August, and by that time the line will be completed to Synkesville. Pretty Home Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Morrison, of Beechwoods, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 22nd, 1904, at ten o'clock a. m., when their daughter, Florence Mabel, was given in marriage to Samuel M. Hunter, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hunter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. H. Hill in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The bridal party stood upon the front porch which was decorated for the occasion. The beautiful ring service was used. The bride was gowned in white lawn, and was attended by Miss Mary Denton as maid of honor. The groom was attended by his cousin, Lemon R. Hunter. Shortly after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, after which the happy pair were driven to Falls Creek to take the afternoon train for Pittsburgh and St. Louis, where they will attend the World's Fair. The bride and groom are among the most popular young people in the Beechwoods, and all their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy married life. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Brookville Ladies. Thursday fourteen Brookville ladies came to Reynoldsville and spent the day with Mrs. W. A. Leech, who recently moved from Brookville to this place. Following are the names of the visitors: Mrs. W. S. Weaver, Mrs. Harriet Beck, Mrs. H. E. McCracken, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Mrs. W. E. Kelso, Mrs. W. H. McAninch, Mrs. J. I. Brady, Mrs. John Beach, Mrs. E. H. Ferguson, Mrs. Wade Moore, Mrs. Sam'l S. Reitz, Mrs. C. R. Vashinder, Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Dell Hoasley. Three of Mrs. Leech's Reynoldsville neighbors, Mrs. D. B. Stauffer, Mrs. J. W. Dempsey and Mrs. G. M. Davis, took dinner with the ladies. In the afternoon the party took a trolley ride out to Wishaw Park. Hand Burned. Fred Johnston, of this place, who is working at the plumbing trade in Puntstunway, had his right hand and right side of his face badly burned last Thursday. Fred was working at a place where the lady of the house had set a bucket of varnish on the furnace and the varnish caught fire. Fred picked up the bucket to throw it out of the house and the bottom fell out of bucket. Death from Typhoid Fever. Lee Newton Cochran, aged 2 years, 7 months and 11 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Cochran, died at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cochran, in this place, at 3:40 p. m. Thursday, June 23, 1904. Death was caused by typhoid fever. The little body was taken to Bradford, Clearfield county, Friday and buried at 10:30 a. m. Saturday. Died in Sharon. Mrs. Laura Kennedy, who would have been 81 years old in August, mother of Mrs. E. C. Burns, of Reynoldsville, died at her home in Sharon, Pa., Thursday, June 23, 1904. Mrs. Burns was at Sharon Wednesday and was at her mother's bedside when she died. Postmaster Burns went to Sharon Friday to attend the funeral. Invitation. Hope Fire Company extends a cordial invitation to all lodges and orders to parade Fourth of July morning. For further information inquire of R. M. Gibson, secretary. Ice cream, sherbet, cake and coffee will be served on the parsonage lawn Thursday evening, by ladies of the Presbyterian missionary society. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Buy your Fourth of July fire works at C. P. Koerner's. Boy's $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 suits at $2.00. Bing-Stoke Co. Buttons, festooning, flags, streamers and Japanese lanterns, &c., at Stoke's, the druggist. A Katzen, of the People's Bargain Store, will give away a fan to every person who will call for the same on Saturday, July 2nd at Mr. Katzen's store. Carnival goods at Stoke's. Ten per cent off on all sales of $1.00 and upwards at Thompson's Racket Store. See the new spring styles in W. B. Millirens. Mothers come in and look at the light colored suits for your boys that we are almost giving away. Bing-Stoke Co.

DEATH FROM APOPLEXY. Owen Kain Stricken While at Work—Funeral Sunday Morning. Owen Kain, who had been a citizen of Reynoldsville fifteen years, had a stroke of apoplexy at 10:30 a. m. Thursday while at work in Big Soldier mine and died at 3:00 a. m. Friday, June 24, 1904. He was brought to his home on Jackson street at 1:00 p. m. Thursday and everything possible was done to save his life, but his case was beyond the power of medical aid. He was conscious only a short time. Mr. Kain had a slight stroke last January. Owen Kain was born at Roscommon, Ireland, July 14, 1840, and would have been 64 years old the 14th of next month. Came to America with his parents when 10 years old. He was married to Margaret Kayton in Philadelphia in March, 1864. Moved to Reynoldsville 15 years ago. He is survived by his widow and five children, John Kain, Mrs. James Maloney, of Reynoldsville, Phillip Kain, of Oak Ridge, Mrs. John S. Schultze, of Reynoldsville, and Mrs. Harry E. Conrad, of Wormleysburg, Pa. Funeral service was held in the Catholic church at 8:15 a. m. Sunday, conducted by Father Lynch. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Calvin Whiteman Dead. Mrs. Calvin Whiteman died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Kirchartz, on Grant street at 12:15 a. m. Saturday, June 25, 1904, after a long illness with stomach trouble. She had been in a comatose state from 8:00 a. m. Thursday until death took place. Mrs. Whiteman was born near Brookville, Pa., May 7, 1829, and was 75 years, 1 month and 18 days old. Her maiden name was Mary Matson. She was married to Calvin Whiteman about 49 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman spent a year at home of their daughter, Mrs. Kirchartz, in this place, returning to Brookville last October. In March of this year Mrs. Whiteman came to home of her daughter and remained here. She was a patient sufferer. Early in life deceased joined the Presbyterian church and was a faithful member. Funeral service was held at the Kirchartz residence at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, and the body of the old mother was taken to Brookville Monday morning for interment. Mrs. Whiteman is survived by her husband and three children, Charles Whiteman, of Butler, Eugene Whiteman, of Marionville, and Mrs. Maud Kirchartz, of Reynoldsville. Home Wedding. At 8:00 p. m. Thursday, June 23, 1904, Miss Margaret Williams, of West Reynoldsville, and William A. Winner, a grocerman of Newberry, Pa., were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Williams, in the presence of the members of the family and a few friends. Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The bride was dressed in white, carrying a bouquet of white roses. Miss Sara Williams played the wedding march. A wedding dinner was served immediately after the ceremony. The bride and groom and Mr. Williams' family took dinner Friday at home of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hoch. Mrs. Hoch is a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Winner left here on the 12:52 p. m. train Friday, amidst a shower of rice, on a wedding trip to Warren, Pa., Limestone, N. Y., and other places. Mrs. Winner was one of West Reynoldsville's fine young ladies. Died in Beechwoods. John H. Ewing and wife were in Beechwoods Thursday attending the funeral of an uncle, McCurdy L. Ewing, who died Tuesday evening, June 21st, 1904. Deceased was about 67 years old. He was a musician of considerable ability and for a number of years sold musical instruments. He was never married. He died at home of Robert B. Hunter. Rev. G. H. Hill conducted funeral service. Interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery. Ice cream, sherbet, cake and coffee will be served on the parsonage lawn Thursday evening, by ladies of the Presbyterian missionary society. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Buy your Fourth of July fire works at C. P. Koerner's. Boy's $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 suits at $2.00. Bing-Stoke Co. Buttons, festooning, flags, streamers and Japanese lanterns, &c., at Stoke's, the druggist. A Katzen, of the People's Bargain Store, will give away a fan to every person who will call for the same on Saturday, July 2nd at Mr. Katzen's store. Carnival goods at Stoke's. Ten per cent off on all sales of $1.00 and upwards at Thompson's Racket Store. See the new spring styles in W. B. Millirens. Mothers come in and look at the light colored suits for your boys that we are almost giving away. Bing-Stoke Co.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Ed. Syphrit spent Sunday in Brookville. Frank Mulhollan is at Baxter this week. Dr. B. E. Hoover was in Kittanning Monday. Miss Frances King is visiting in Clarion. Mrs. Dr. A. J. Meek is visiting in Pittsburg. Miss Frances Kirk is visiting at McKeesport. Mrs. G. G. Sprague was in Brookville Friday. Dr. H. B. McGarrath is in Williamsport this week. Mrs. Henry Herpel spent Sunday in Puntstunway. A. M. Wadding, of Brookville, was in town Sunday. Mrs. Mary J. Riggs is visiting a sister in DuBois. Mrs. Edith Flanner went to Johnsonburg last evening. D. B. McConnell, of Falls Creek, was in town yesterday. Fred Miller and wife, of Kittanning, are visiting in town. Mrs. C. F. Hoffman visited relatives in Brookville last week. John D. Patterson and wife spent Monday in Beechwoods. David McKee, of Corsica, was a visitor in town last week. Mrs. T. M. Armagost and children spent last week at Garee. William Bolt moved from East Brady to Reynoldsville this week. Ed. Jennings and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in DuBois. D. L. Dally, of Mt. Jewett, was a visitor in town over Sunday. Perry Love spent Sunday at home of his brother in Rose township. Next Monday, July 4th, there will be a large crowd in Reynoldsville. Charles Marsh, of New Bethlehem, was a visitor in town Thursday. Wm. Breakey, of Stanton, visited his son, Wayne Breakey, yesterday. Mrs. A. Z. Snyder visited in Brookville a couple of days last week. Harry Martin, of Mosgrove, visited his parents in this place last week. Prof. J. R. Wilson, of Corsica, was a visitor in town the first of this week. Miss Emma Davis, student in Indiana State Normal, is home on a vacation. Miss Bertha Young, of Custer, was the guest of Miss Elsie Ross last week. Glen Plyler went to Rossiter Monday to accept a position in a barbershop. Mrs. Mary Fillhart visited at Rockland, Clearfield Co., during the past week. Harry Richards, of New Kensington, visited relatives in this place the past week. M. J. Riggs and family, of Allegheny City, are visiting their parents in this place. Mrs. Sophia Higgins, of Falls Creek, was the guest of Mrs. Ellen Plyler Saturday. David Neale, of Hamilton, visited his brother, Dr. J. B. Neale, the first of this week. Mrs. Charles Keuper, of Fairmount, was the guest of Mrs. Clara M. Shick last week. Mrs. Frank Murray returned Thursday from a five weeks' visit at Liberty, Tioga Co. Mrs. Mat. Stevenson, of Beechree, visited relatives in this place during the past week. Misses Gertrude and Florence Stoke and Fay Neale spent last Friday in Puntstunway. D. R. P. Womer, of Kane, some years ago a citizen of Reynoldsville, was in town last Friday. Levi Barlett, of Callensburg, visited his son, C. A. Barlett, in West Reynoldsville last week. W. S. Weaver, one of the editors of the Brookville Republican, was in Reynoldsville yesterday. Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bowser left here Thursday to visit relatives in Wilkesburg and Johnstown. Mrs. Annie Annes, of Fairmount, visited her brother, H. W. Herpel, in this place the past week. James W. Gillespie, manager of the Bing-Stoke Co. department store, was in Clearfield yesterday. Frank Bates, a glass cutter, who was working at Lancaster, Ohio, returned to this place last week. Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Durnell, of Rockwood, Pa., visited the former's sister, Mrs. A. B. Weed, and husband in West Reynoldsville this week. Mr. Durnell is an engineer on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Mrs. P. P. Womer, of Syracuse, N. Y., will come to home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bing, in this place this week to visit a few weeks. Mrs. Womer has not been home for four years, and during that time she and her husband, Rev. Womer, spent one year in Europe. Joseph Macro, student in Bucknell University at Lewisburg, will spend the summer vacation at this place. Rev. Perry A. Reno attended the Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church at Lindsey this week. Guy Cornmesser, who was attending the Central State Normal School at Lock Haven, returned home last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Karns and son, William, of Oakmont, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Weed the first of this week. Miss Louisa Jones, of Blossburg, Tioga Co., is a bookkeeper in the J. & C. C. & I. Co. office in this place. Dr. J. D. Tucker, of New Castle, who was Dr. John H. Murray's assistant at Soldier for a time, is in town this week. Miss Lucretia Warnick, of Glen Hazel, Pa., is visiting her aunts, Mrs. D. H. Young and Mrs. S. Reesler, in this place. Mrs. Wilson Gross, of Pittsburg, formerly of West Reynoldsville, is visiting relatives and friends in this place. Miss Nellie Beck, of New Bethlehem, visited her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips, in this place the past week. Mr. S. B. Rumsey, formerly superintendent of the Low Grade Division, and wife, of Pittsburg, were in town last week. Mrs. Joseph Landsechutz, of Burlington, N. J., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Snyder, in West Reynoldsville. Mrs. Claud Truitt, of Pittsburg, visited her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Truitt, on Jackson street last week. Mrs. L. L. Means is visiting her husband's parents at Frostburg. Dr. Means was at Frostburg the first of this week. Mrs. J. J. Sutter, Mrs. James E. Mitchell and daughter, Helen, visited Mrs. H. P. Thompson in Brookville Thursday. Harry E. Conrad and wife, of Wormleysburg, Pa., were called here last week by the death of the latter's father, Owen Kain. Mrs. H. J. Dowdick, who was in Puntstunway two years, has returned to home of her son, Elmer Ellenberger, in this place. Misses Grace Meek and Katherine King, students in Bucknell University at Lewisburg, are at home for the summer vacation. Mrs. Mary Jackson, who was visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke, returned to Pittsburg last Friday. Mrs. William Britton, of Rockdale Mills, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, the milliner, the latter part of last week. Mrs. Dr. J. W. Coleman and son, Harry, of Jerome, Arizona, are visiting the families of Dr. J. C. King and M. C. Coleman in this place. Miss Elsie Ross, of this place, and Miss Bertha Young, of Custer, were at Clarion Friday night attending a class reunion at the State Normal School. Mrs. D. H. Krummacker and son, John, of White Haven, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, "Squire" and Mrs. J. D. Woodring, in West Reynoldsville. Miss Elva Coleman went to Lewisburg last week to attend the Bucknell University commencement and from there went to Spring Mills to visit a school mate. Mrs. Catherine Coleman and son, M. C. Coleman, were called to Curtilsville, Clarion Co., last week to attend the funeral of Jacob Blittonbender, brother-in-law of Mrs. Coleman. Mrs. J. L. Schall, of Pittsburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bone, in this place, and expects to remain here all summer. Mr. Schall was in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Small, of Newberry visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Williams, in West Reynoldsville the past week and attended the Winner-Williams wedding. Joseph F. Weist, who has been a resident of Reynoldsville three years, moved to Phillipsburg the first of this week, where he is interested in a large brewery being erected at that place. Mrs. John H. Kaucher and daughter, Laura, who have been at Milton, Philadelphia and Atlantic City since fourth of last month, will return to Reynoldsville the latter part of this week. Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Durnell, of Rockwood, Pa., visited the former's sister, Mrs. A. B. Weed, and husband in West Reynoldsville this week. Mr. Durnell is an engineer on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Mrs. P. P. Womer, of Syracuse, N. Y., will come to home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bing, in this place this week to visit a few weeks. Mrs. Womer has not been home for four years, and during that time she and her husband, Rev. Womer, spent one year in Europe.